

Camco Technologies – Software Application Developer (medior) From road to vessel

Position

- You develop new applications and frameworks and expand existing products as a full-stack developer
- You persist the code according to the established Git flow
- You submit high-quality finished code to the reviewers
- You configure software correctly
- You work out the desired specifications by translating them into code
- You test the software and identify problems
- You carry out maintenance work and updates to existing software
- You are responsible for independently investigating and solving product problems
- You write accompanying technical documentation
- You independently perform the analysis of new features
- You independently research and test various options to solve various problems and develop new technologies
- You report to the team lead on a regular basis
- You act as a mentor for new colleagues who are taking their first steps in development and guide them through their training and tasks

Profile

- You have a master's degree in computer science/information technology and have a passion for programming
- You have at least 3 years of programming experience
- You have experience with an OO language such as C# or Java (C#, ASP.NET, API design)
- You have experience with Typescript or Javascript
- Experience in Angular? This is a plus! If not, there is a training waiting for you
- You have a good knowledge of good programming principles such as OO SOLID and design patterns
- You enjoy working in a team and you can work well on a project basis

- In addition, you have a strong work ethic and are able to solve tasks and problems independently
- You speak Dutch and English well

Offer

- Permanent contract with competitive salary package (meal vouchers, pension plan, health insurance, car...)
- A challenging job in a high-tech and steadily growing company (220+ employees), with the opportunity to further develop your skills
- Your office will be in Leuven or Ghent
- Hybrid working is possible according to home work policy
- You will receive specific training and continuously learn from your colleagues
- You get fresh soup and fruit every day
- Corporate and team events are regularly organized
- You don't have to worry about parking space

<https://www.camco.be>