

Camco Technologies – Technical Training Specialist

Your Role

As a Technical Training Specialist at Camco Academy, you play a key role in transferring technical expertise. You ensure that new colleagues, experienced technicians, contractors, and clients gain a thorough understanding of our products and systems. Your efforts make technical insights clear, accessible, and practically applicable.

- Organize and deliver (online and onsite) technical training sessions on our products and solutions.
- Use and maintain existing training materials, ensuring they are up-to-date and relevant.
- Translate complex technical information into clear, understandable content tailored to your audience.
- Collaborate closely with our engineering, support, and R&D teams to maintain accuracy of the material.
- Promote a culture of learning and knowledge sharing across the organization.
- Act as a go-to person for colleagues who need additional explanations or technical support.
- Maintain, build, and test training content and documentation.

Your Profile

- You have a technical background (in electromechanics, automation, etc.) or equivalent experience.
- Preferably, you have experience in training, coaching, or mentoring.
- You understand how complex systems work and can explain them clearly.
- You communicate fluently in both English, French and Dutch (spoken and written).
- You enjoy presenting and can deliver technical content in an engaging, accessible way.
- You work in a structured manner and have strong organizational skills.
- You're stress-resistant and can adapt to unforeseen situations.
- You're willing to travel for work (e.g. to Camco sites in China/India) approximately 15–20% of the time.

Our Offer

- A challenging position within a growing high-tech company (+200 employees) in an international environment.
- Competitive salary and attractive benefits package.
- Career development opportunities and room for professional growth.
- An innovative and supportive work culture with strong team spirit.

- You get fresh soup and fruit every day.
- Corporate and team events are regularly organized.
- You don't have to worry about parking space.
